

PROPOSAL 240

5 AAC 92.031(b). Permit for selling skins, skulls, and trophies.

Allow the sale of a game skin, or trophy from a revokable trust as follows:

5 AAC 92.031(b). Permit for selling skins, skulls and trophies.

(b) A court appointed or duly authorized estate executor, or a referee in a bankruptcy, may sell a game skin or trophy in a bankruptcy or probate action, or from a revokable trust, if that person first obtains a permit from the department.

What is the issue you would like the board to address and why? I went down to get a permit to sell my husband's sheep mount a few years after he passed away, but since our estate is in a revokable trust, thereby avoiding probate entirely, the wording of this regulation wouldn't allow them to give me the permit, even though I am the executor and trustee of his estate.

(From NOLO.com legal encyclopedia, "the main feature of a living trust is that it appoints a trustee to manage and distribute trust property after your death and this takes the place of the executor working with the probate court").
